About the Grants

Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Kuia recognises the importance of supporting the educational aspirations of whānau. Ngāti Kuia has therefore established grants that are available to whānau studying at a tertiary level.

The applicant's course of study must be undertaken at a recognised tertiary institution. Applicants must provide evidence of their most recent academic results when applying.

Eligibility

Only Ngāti Kuia whānau may apply for an Educational Grant.

Grant recipients may be asked to attend and support Ngāti Kuia activities or initiatives and to provide a profile for iwi communications.

You must notify Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Kuia Trust immediately if you withdraw from or fail to complete your course of study.

Applicants must provide a transcript of their academic record.

Provision of funding by Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Kuia does not guarantee continued funding in the future.

No late or incomplete applications will be considered.

Privacy Act

All information provided by the applicant is held by the Te Rūnanga o Ngāti Kuia Trust in accordance with the Privacy Act.

We do seek permission to use applicants profiles in our iwi communications and statistical information and you are asked to give this permission when signing the declaration at the end of this application.
